Planned Giving

Camp Luz is supported by the generous giving of many individuals who know the importance of this ministry. There are a variety of ways to donate to Camp Luz, including through our website using a credit card. Thanks to our friends at Everence we are also prepared to accept more complex donations. If you haven't yet looked into planned giving options, one of their financial planners can help you prepare to leave a legacy that will help us freely proclaim the radical hope of Jesus Christ to the next generation for many years to come.

Men's Retreat

Men's Retreat was a chilly weekend at the beginning of April. Moses Rumano from Malone University gave input at this year's retreat. Just over forty men joined us for a wonderful weekend full of fellowship, a tour of Weaver Leather, lots of food and games. Highlights included a new trivia game Saturday evening. Categories included sports fun facts, Bible trivia, wacky tools and finally meat!

Mother Daughter Retreat

Mother Daughter Retreat was April 13-14. This year over forty individuals came to enjoy Mother Daughter Retreat. Julie Longacre from Wooster did a wonderful job speaking and connecting with everyone, from the youngest of four years old to grandmothers. Highlights included a S'more Bar, and lots of craft and spa time!

Father Son Retreat

April 27-28, we had our Father Son Retreat. Our speakers were Jim and Isaac Bartholomew. Jim and Isaac did a wonderful job of connecting the "Rooted" theme to both the sons and fathers through object lessons, Bible stories and father son time. The weekend was filled with fun and laughter and even boasted a couple first time fishermen. The weekend highlights included Gaga Ball, fishing, S'mores and making your own bamboo fishing pole to take home.

Staff Testimonial

Hannah Otto

Student: Mount Vernon University

Growing up, the camp experience was not something that I participated in so when I first came to Camp Luz three summers ago, I was very excited to finally go to camp! The atmosphere was exactly what my spiritual life needed. And because of this I am happy to keep returning to camp. Being a part of the staff here is more than just a job; for me it's a reaffirmation for what I am called to do.

As an education major, I have always had a passion for students and it was here at Camp Luz that each summer, I am reminded of how God has called me, not just with my college major but my purpose in life. Each week of camp, I rediscover that service is not a chore but rather a joy when I am where God wants me to be.

Camp Luz feels like a taste of what I am called to do and it makes me ecstatic to keep returning to a place where I know I will continually meet God and be in His presence!
